Hancock American Little League proudly welcomes SWFL instructors to teach your child the proper techniques to be a better hitter, fielder, and base runner. It is our goal to get your child better for the next level, whether that level is majors, 50/70, or seniors. They will have a much better understanding of what it takes to get better and prepare for their future in baseball.

“The SWFL Baseball Camp is geared towards learning the game and individual improvement of each baseball player. The SWFL staff will make this camp exciting and fun for all players.”

John Cedarburg
Colorado Rockies Scouting Supervisor

Instructional Philosophy:

The instructional philosophy of the SWFL Baseball Camp is provide the best instruction that you can get in a camp setting. Professional coaches with extensive experience at the high school, collegiate, and professional level are ready and willing to give each player professional techniques that are used by the pros. All areas of the game are addressed and a variety of drills, practice groups and situational games assist in driving the point home while providing instructional drills for each player to take home with them. The SWFL Baseball Camp strives to provide a creative baseball atmosphere so that each player will improve his game and get ready for the next season.
